

PATCH PARK

SHOWREEL

THIS IS PATCH PARK

Exploring new horizons

Patch Park is a defining force in electronic music from The Netherlands, with a catalogue that spans some of the most respected labels in the scene - Global Underground, Renaissance, Be As One, Yoshitoshi, District, Meanwhile, Vapour, Deep, Wolfskuil, Elevate and Little Mountain Recordings.

Their remix work speaks to the trust placed in them by the wider community, having reimagined tracks for Darren Emerson, Infusion, Soundexile, Around Us, Jochem Hamerling, Remy Unger, Matthew Dekay, Lemon8, Montero, Max Graham, Paolo Mojo, Roland Klinkenberg, and Oliver Moldan, among others.

On the road, Patch Park has built a reputation earned across years of headline appearances at Extrema, Solar Weekend, Amnesia, The Loft, The Shelbourne and Whoosah, with bookings spanning Europe and America. Sharing the booth with the likes of Joris Voorn, Hernan Cattaneo, Eelke Kleijn, Patrice Bäumel, Satoshi Tomiie, Remy, Sander Kleinenberg, Gabriel Ananda, Nuno Dos Santos, Bart Skils, Pig&Dan, Dave Clarke, James Holden and Technasia, they have long been part of the conversation at the highest level of the game.

DISCOGRAPHY

Over two decades of releases on influential labels

Patch Park's discography began with a remix for DJ Remy on Deep Dish's Yoshitoshi label. Signing with Extrema's DJ agency opened the door to releases on Deep Records, catching the attention of Sander Kleinenberg and sparking a series of releases on Little Mountain Recordings.

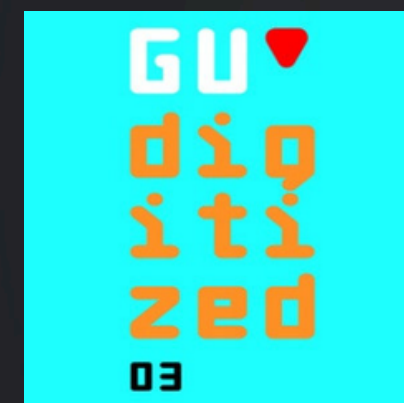

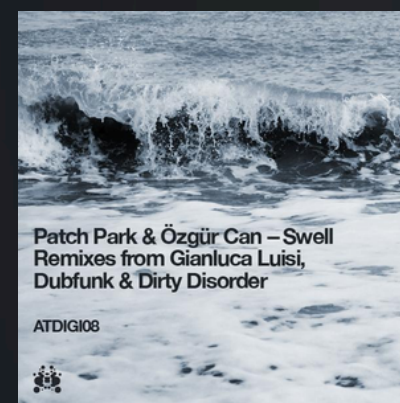

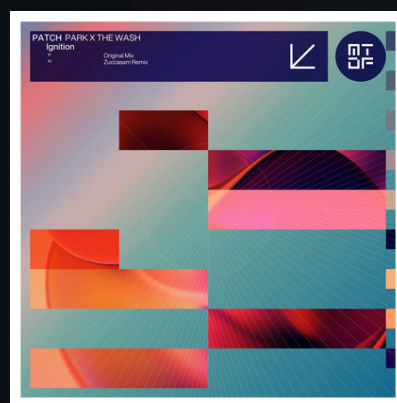

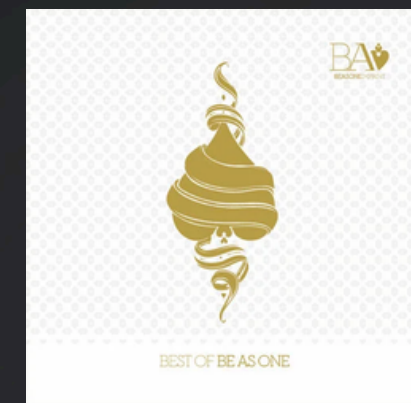

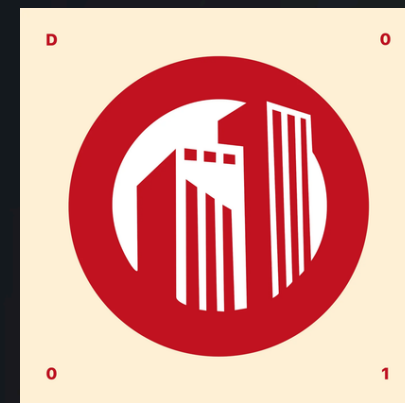

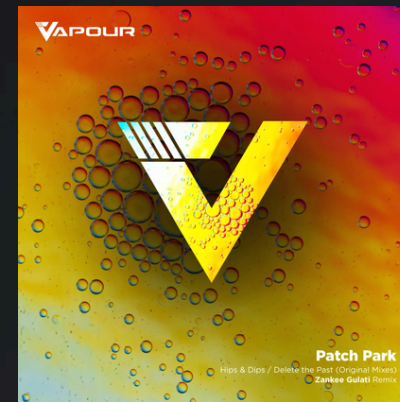

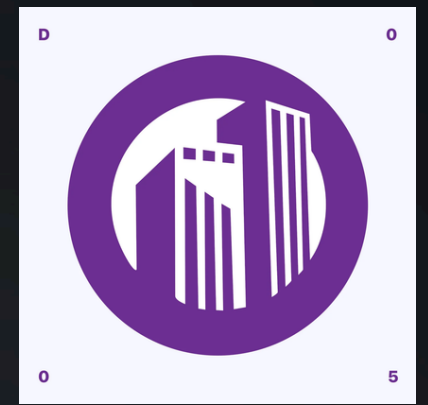

This soon caught the attention of other A&R's, leading to releases on renowned labels like Global Underground, Renaissance and Dave Seaman's Audiotherapy. While Patch Park's sound is often categorized as progressive house, many of his productions lean toward a techier, groove-driven style. This versatility attracted the attention of Shlomi Aber, resulting in releases on his Be As One imprint or Pig & Dan's Elevate records.

A period of more techno-infused productions followed during which Patch Park teamed up with DJ Remy to launch Fone Audio. The duo released several chart-topping EPs and hosted events at the legendary Whoosah beach club. After a break, Patch Park returned with a fresh yet distinctive sound that once again caught the attention of renowned labels such as Meanwhile, Vapour, Mango Alley, District, and Plastic Fantastic.

Patch Park thrives on playing extended sets, creating space for creativity and the freedom to explore a wide range of records. Their sound blends driving techno with progressive house, allowing them to adapt to diverse stages and inject energy into any dancefloor.

Before Patch Park, Perry toured internationally. Signed to Armada, he regularly played warm-up sets for Armin van Buuren in front of massive crowds. Under his successful techno alias On/Off, and with releases on Alan Fitzpatrick's label, he performed extensively across Europe. As Patch Park, early career management by Extrema led to appearances on prestigious stages and festivals.

Years of exploring different subgenres and performing in countless settings have shaped Patch Park into the act they are today: seasoned, versatile, and guaranteed to deliver on the dancefloor. Their close friendship adds an unspoken chemistry that translates directly into their performances.
